INAUGURATION OF THE GOVERNOR OF NEW-JERSEY.

His Address to the People.

THENTON, N. J., Tuesday, Jan. 20, 1863.

A large number of people were in attendance here to-day to witness the inauguration of the Hon. Joel Parker as Governor of the State of New-Jersey. The military formed in line, and consisted of twelve companies of infantry, two squadrons of cavalry, and two companies of artillery.

Numerous applications have been made for the establish ment of stamp approples in different portions of the country.

These applications have been uniformly declined, not only in obedience to the plain provisions of the law, but also from a firm conviction that it would be unwise in the Government to encourage the establishment of such agencies. The law authorizes the slowence of a commission to those who purchase statings in sums of not less than $50. Under this authority the following commissions are allowed:

On purchases of $50 or more, 2 per centum. On purchases of $100 or more, 3 per centum. On purchases of $500 or more, 4 per centum. On purchases of $5,000 or more, 5 per centum.

A sesolution was adopted, appointing Daniel F. O'Brien lerk to the Second District Court, in place of Thes. F. Peers,

Clerk to the Second District Court, in place of Thos. F. Peers, deceased.

Mr. Punny renewed a former resolution offered by him, assing the Mayor to nonmate 30 Marshans tin line of Constables), as provided by law, if of whom shall be chosen by each political party represented in the Board. He stated that he responsibility should rest where it properly belonged. He desired the Mayor to know that this Board was ready to act to the matter.

Mr. Syrwans was opposed to the resolution, and did not want any such politicals bargain to appear upon their minutes.

Mr. Punny didn't see it. He was a partism, and he intended to see that the patronage of the Board was shared by Democratic members. The Democrate intended to do their bed. Everything went well when the Democrate were larged in the Strength of the Want and year of the Mayor to the Federal Capital's they would soon make things straight. They were willing to give the Republicans half.

After some further discussion, the matter was laid over.

Action for damages arising from the death of Paul Winthimer, sinc busband of the plaintiff, who was killed by the failing of an elevator used in the store of defendant in Disnes street, on Feb. 1, 1861, where Winshimer was employed.

On cross-examination of plaintiff's witnesses, it appeared that printed nutices in Engith, and German were kept fastened to the elevator, in plain sight, warning all persons not to go on it; that Winshitmer had been often warned not to go on the elevator, and knew that such was the rule of the store; also that he went on the elevator just after it had been repoired, and when it was loased lightly to test its strongth.

Defendants' connel moved for a nonsult, on the ground that elecased knew the rules in regard to going on the elevator, and thereby assumed the risk himself, and released the defendants from lishing on such accident.
